Professor Alan Rice

Faith in Education

9.30 am
Sunday 28 July 2013

St Ives Uniting Church
Corner of Mona Vale Rd
& Douglas St, St Ives

Emeritus Professor Alan Rice will give the address at St Ives Uniting Church's second annual Education Service.

This service is for anyone with a stake in education, which is everyone in society!

We will recognise educators of all kinds for their contribution to society, and reflect on the place of faith & learning in life.

Emeritus Professor Alan Rice

Emeritus Professor Alan Rice has enjoyed a diverse career in schools, educational administration and teacher preparation. He was Director of Early Childhood and Primary Education in the NSW Department of Education until 2001 and accepted a position at Macquarie University that enabled him to play a role in Teacher Education as Dean of the Australian Centre for Educational Studies. He has special interests in early childhood and literacy whilst his academic area was in leadership and management.

Alan is the current Chair of the Assembly Council of the Baptist Association of Churches of NSW and ACT and is on several Boards including a Christian School, a vocational college (Bedford which specializes in early childhood and business) and the Academic Board and the Council of Morling College, the Baptist Theological College at Macquarie Park.
